WOMEN'S NEW SERGE DRESSES

In Navy Blue with a Touch of Brightness

Navy Blue Serge Dresses are having quite a vogue for street and morning wear, and they have never been prettier. Some of them are very plain and simple and others are rather distinguished looking in cut and trimming.

Steel-beaded Dresses in various Oriental designs.

Striking embroidered effects in bright reds and greens.

Satin and Serge combined is very pretty, as is Serge and Georgette Crepe.

Full-plaited and Plain-flaring Skirts are both shown.

A new Draped Bodice Dress, with full skirt and big stand-out pockets, having touches of red is one of the latest models.

Redingote Coat styles on rather straight lines.

Collars are of satin, Georgette crepe and flannel; many in white.

A particularly good value at $16.50, and others up to $35.00, including women's sizes in the "Drexellesley" Dress.

New Afternoon, Calling and Reception Dresses are coming in daily and reveal the best that the new styles afford.

Main floor—G st.

Decorative and Fancy Pottery for the Home

JARDINIERES—Graceful in shape and artistic in colors. They may be very simple or they may be exquisitely colored and decorated in exclusive designs, but there is real art in every one we show. Some of the most wonderful hand-decorated imported Jardinieres with soft grays, greens, and pink rose colors; majestic shaded effects with a rich metallic rim, and hundreds of designs that are without duplicate here or elsewhere, and really works of art. Black Jardinieres with birds and foliage in rich contrasts, and light colors with a big colored bird perched on a blooming bush; colonial and period shapes in soft pinks, lavenders, and greens with embossed colored flowers and foliage in sprays and borders true to life and color.

Solid colors are the newest—soft Venetian blue in a very artistic shape at $2.00; flare shaped green, yellow, mat green and buff red, from 50c to $2.00 for the various sizes.

Black and white decoration is another new novelty—the key tracing in white on black band; other designs also, from 5-inch at 35c to a 13-inch at $4.50. Roma Art Pottery Jardinieres are exclusively here; a lovely shaded ivory pottery with hand-colored flowers, foliage, panel, animal and conventional patterns; an 8-inch size is priced at $1.15 and up to 12-inch at $3.95. These are distinctively Roman in type of design and study of architecture. Jardinieres and Pedestals may be had to match at $6.00 and $7.50.

HANGING FLOWER BASKETS AND VASES—The highest type of American pottery art, and far superior to those that have heretofore been imported; a rustic stone effect is very odd in its shaded green pebbled surface, with pottery birds perched on boughs of wood at the base. Similar Fern and Flower Baskets may also be had in Burnt Wood Pottery, Plain-colored Pottery, Roma Art Pottery, Black-and-white Striped Pottery. All fitted with removable casing and hanging chains. Entirely new are the Baskets and Vases for cut flowers in odd and unique designs, hand colored, and with chains for hanging the pottery—an art of recent origin.

FERN DISHES FOR THE TABLE—Most any desired effect or color scheme can be carried out—oblong, square, tub, trough, octagon, round, oval, and all sorts of shapes. Roma Art Fern Dishes, 65c, to $3.45; Mat Green Fern.

Fifth floor—G st.

SOLID COLOR POTTERY VASES—Heretofore we looked to Japan to furnish these, but now American potters give us the most original and beautiful conceptions of the art that we have ever seen. Blues that look like the sky on a day in June; misty greens and mottled tones; a very rich yellow; purples and buffs of royal richness. Vases of every size and height—Cylinder Vases, Fount-shape Vases, Round Vases, Small-tube Vases. Some of these Fount Vases are big enough to serve as the fount for a Colonial lamp. There are also Flower Pots and Saucers, Flower Dishes, Flower Wall Pockets and Flower Gates to be used singly or in groups on the table.

DONATELLO POTTERY—One of the softest colors and most classic designs to be had in pottery at a moderate price. It is exclusive with us and this display is now complete and embraces several new pieces. The design shows a fluted base and top delicately tinted on ivory forming a most restful and artistic two-toned effect, with a band panel of cupids. Jardinieres from 75c to $2.25; Vases, 50c to $2.25; Fern Dishes, 50c to $3.50; Candlesticks at 50c; Flower Gates at 75c; Footed Fern Dishes, $1.00 to $2.50; Flower Dishes, $1.00 and $1.50; Pots and Saucers, 75c to $1.50; Flower Baskets, $1.00 and $1.50. The Vase display is a remarkable one in this pottery, and seldom do we see such a variety of shape and size in any one line.

NEW POTTERY FLOWER DISHES—Shallow and deep shapes, many with the broad, beveled, in-turning rim and some with the outward shaped rim; some footed in a unique way and others that set fast on the table. There are plain colored blues and greens, black-and-white decorations and mottled colors. All have separate holders to match. New Bulb Bowls with pebbles in which to start Narcissus and Jonquils growing.

JAPANESE POTTERY VASES IN SMOKED BAMBOO CASINGS—In addition to vases of many shapes, from bud and spear effects to the large ones, there are Hanging Baskets, Sweet Pea Baskets, and other artistic pieces in greens, blues, king's yellow and quaint colors that are particularly rich through the casings of bamboo. Pieces priced as low as 25c.

ROYAL NISHIKI POTTERY VASES—Carrying out the black-and-white color scheme in Futurist, floral, and conventional designs, and $2.50 for 12 and 14 inch sizes.

BODY BRUSSELS RUGS FOR BEDROOMS.
